Numerous Speakers Assert Funds Should Be Increased

LEE NEW PRESIDENT

G. A. Zernott Elected As Additional Vice-President

ALEXANDRIA, La., Nov. 22.—(AP)—At least one thing is agreed upon at the convention here of the Louisiana Teachers' association—the teachers want and should get more money.

The suggestion that school funds be increased, expressed by numerous speakers, were made before many attentive aspirants for office in the January 16 primary.

Four of the five candidates for governor, Governor Earl K. Long, James A. Noe, Sam Jones and Vincent Moseley were here yesterday to mingle with the record crowd of delegates but they were not invited to speak.

T. H. Harris, state superintendent of education, a candidate to succeed himself, said in his annual address that [illegible] funds should be materially increased, that teachers should be paid more and that an extra year of instruction should be provided.

J. N. Pa[illegible] of New Orleans, the association's retiring president, said in his address that $2,[illegible] additional was needed [illegible] to boost teachers' salaries and that $1,[illegible] more was needed to maintain the present educational program.

The teachers elected E. A. Lee, Natchitoches parish school superintendent, president. He received 1,707 votes to 1,[illegible] for Lewis J. Bates of Donaldsonville, [illegible] for J. O. Davis, principal of the Terrebonne [illegible] and 170 for Mrs. [illegible] White Ruggle of Gretna.

Retiring President P[illegible] automatically became [illegible] vice-president. G. A. Zernott, Avoyelles parish high school supervisor, was named to the other vice-presidency post and William Dodd of [illegible] was elected president of the [illegible] department.

Superintendent [illegible] in his address said teachers [illegible] accepted the principle that the state should bear the [illegible] of [illegible] rather than the parishes.

"We also accept," he said, "the principle that the state should secure its funds, not from ad valorem taxes but from such sources as severance taxes and income taxes, thus relieving the great masses of the poor from

KUHN DENIES STEALING CASH

Testifies He Was Authorized To Spend Money As He Chose

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Fritz Kuhn faced cross-examination today on his charge that $1,957 was missing from his desk in the German American bund headquarters after representatives of District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey raided the office and seized bund financial records.

The state indicated it might also put on the stand Mrs. Florence Camp, the blonde Hollywood divorcee to whom the middle-aged bund-fuehrer telegraphed his "love and kisses." He also paid furniture moving bills of $717 for her but said she later returned the money.

Kuhn's testimony that $1,957 in cash was missing from his office after the raid by Dewey's men was given during his surprise appearance yesterday on the witness stand.

He said he had complained about the disappearance of the money to the district attorney's office, without directly accusing anyone, but had obtained no satisfaction. The amount he said was missing was slightly more than the amount the prosecution now charges he stole from the bund—$1,891.

The indictments against Kuhn were based on the financial records seized by Dewey's agents.

A calm witness after preliminary nervousness, the stout, bespectacled bund leader insisted he was authorized to disburse his organization's funds as he chose, vehemently denied

10TH ANNIVERSARY TO BE OBSERVED

The tenth anniversary edition of The Monroe Morning World is now in process of preparation and will be published Sunday. It will be issued in celebration of the establishment here in 1929 of the morning paper.

Advertisers wishing representation in the edition, which will be widely distributed throughout the state, particularly northeast Louisiana, are urged to make reservation for space immediately.

Space may be reserved by communicating with the advertising department, the telephone number of which is 4800.

GIRL UNRUFFLED BY SLAYING

A few hours after Brooks Coffman, Dallas, Tex., attorney, was shot to death on the [illegible] street of that city, his accused slayer, blonde Cor[illegible] Maddox, 26, was at her home calmly reading a magazine story. She was released under $7,5[illegible] bond after surrendering and telling police she shot Coffman when faced [illegible] a charge that he stabbed her last May.

DILLON LAUGHS AT MENTION OF FISHHOOK THEFT

Only Two Jurors Chosen When Court Recesses At Noon

White-haired Dr. Harvey Dillon found a couple of things to chuckle over Wednesday morning in the repeated mention of the apparently embezzled fishhooks during the examination of jurors to hear the trial of the ousted superintendent of Louisiana Training institute. The trial of Dr. Dillon, accused of embezzlement of L. T. I. properties, was ordered to proceed in district criminal court here Tuesday afternoon after defense motions to quash the indictment and obtain a continuance had been overruled by Judge J. T. Shell.

Empaneling of the jury developed into a slow and wordy process, with only two jurors having been accepted by noon Wednesday. The two men sustained by state and defense counsel are C. L. Couch and Charles Bigger, both of Monroe. Eight other jurors were examined, four being excused by the defense, three by the state and one for cause. These were Robert Cowden, E. A. Faulk, J. L. Heath, Jr., Howard J. Hunter, W. L. Bradshaw, Jim Cloyd, Johnnie Moore and Fred Huenfeld.

When the grand jury indictment returned against the florid-faced ousted

BARRING HANDBILLS DECLARED ILLEGAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The supreme court held today that a municipal ordinance requiring a "censorship through license which makes impossible the free and unhampered distribution of pamphlets strikes at the very heart of the constitutional guarantees."

This assertion was made by Justice Roberts in an opinion holding unconstitutional three municipal ordinances prohibiting the distribution of handbills on the streets and a fourth ordinance prohibiting the canvassing of homes for the sale of booklets, without first obtaining a permit from the chief of police. Justice McReynolds dissented.

The ordinance prohibiting canvassing was applied by Irvington, N. J. Those prohibiting the distribution of handbills and circulars were passed by Milwaukee, Los Angeles, and Worcester, Mass.

"Conceding," Roberts said, "that fraudulent appeals may be made in the name of charity and religion, we hold a municipality cannot, for this reason, require all who wish to disseminate ideas to present them first to police authorities for their consideration and approval, with a discretion in the police to say some ideas may, while others may not, be carried to the homes of citizens; some persons may, while others may not disseminate information from house to house."

"Frauds may be denounced as offenses and punished by law. Trespasses may similarly be forbidden.

JONES CHARGES LONG KEEPING PEOPLE POOR

Says Governor Wants It That Way So Votes Will Be Cheap

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Gubernatorial Candidate Sam Jones, making a radio appeal today to "housewives" to get behind their "menfolks," blamed New Orleans' retarded position in South American trade on the present state administration.

Quoting a news dispatch which declared that New York "is" the country's only free port, welcomed an ever increasing board of South American commodities, Jones said:

"I ask Bob Maestri and his Charlie McCarthy, Earl Long, and his close friend Seymour Weiss why isn't New Orleans a free port? Why is this vast volume of South and Central American trade skipping New Orleans, the natural gateway from the south?"

Increased port activity here, Jones continued, would create innumerable jobs and abolish unemployment.

"The truth is," Jones said, "that these greedy politicians * * * want to keep you poor and without steady work * * * so that when they come along once every four years and offer you a two-month job at $60 or $70 a month you have to take the ditch-digging and rat-catching jobs they offer you * * * to control your vote."

Jones said that in 1932 former Senator Paul E. Chasez of New Orleans offered a state senate bill to establish a "free zone" here but the "Long-Maestri-Weiss-Peltier gang, running the state then as now, beat the bill."

Addressing himself directly to the housewives, Jones said:

"I want you women of New Orleans, you housewives, you mothers and wives of men to listen to what I have to say."

The "Long-Maestri-Weiss-Peltier gang," Jones said, "deliberately wanted to keep you poor."

"They were afraid that a prosperous port would mean a prosperous well-fed citizenry, and a prosperous well-fed citizenry, not dependent upon pitiful slave jobs, might vote this gang out of office. * * * They don't want you to be independent of a political boss."

Jones asked whether "Earl Long, Bob Maestri and Seymour Weiss" could not have found a required 67

RICHARD GALLOGLY'S APPEAL POSTPONED

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Arguments on the appeal of Richard Gray Gallogly, Georgia fugitive seeking release on bail pending final disposition of his legal fight against extradition, were postponed indefinitely by the court of criminal appeals today.

The continuance was granted because of the illness of the wife of State Senator Jesse Martin, chief of Gallogly's counsel. Presiding Judge F. W. Hawkins said he would probably determine tomorrow when a new setting would be made.

BRITAIN SAYS GERMAN SHIP INTERCEPTED

Members Of Crew Begin Sinking Vessel And Taking To Boats

NAZI PLANES ATTACK

Shelling Of Shetland Islands By Hitler's Aircraft Reported

LONDON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The admiralty announced today that a German ship, the Bertha Fisser, had been intercepted by a British warship near Iceland.

A brief announcement here said the German crew started to sink their ship and took to their boats, and that they later were picked up by a British warship.

The Bertha Fisser is a 4,110-ton freighter, built in 1919, belonging to the Emden firm of Fi[illegible]er and von Doornum.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—German planes today dropped bombs in a raid over the Shetland Islands off the northern coast of Scotland.

Air raid alarms in one of the island towns were followed quickly by the "all clear" signal.

Tracer bullets were fired as the planes circled, dropping bombs.

Six planes took part in the raid, but failed to score any hits, British sources announced.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Swift acceleration of the war at sea was forecast by observers today as Great Britain undertook measures of retaliation for what Prime Minister Chamberlain described as the "ruthless brutality" of German attacks on merchant shipping.

Stirred by the sinking of 15 ships—including five neutrals—in the last five days, the admiralty moved to intensify the blockade against Germany by seizing all German exports on the high seas.

The blockade hitherto has been directed only against German imports.

The new measure—to which Britain resorted in the second year of the World war—is aimed at throttling sources of foreign exchange with which to buy war materials.

Explaining the order, which Chamberlain announced to a cheering house of commons yesterday, a government spokesman said German exports in neutral ships go through the Suez canal in large quantities.

He added that Germany had consigned large shipments of machinery and other products to South American nations to be transformed into local production and the proceeds sold in the United States for dollars."

Chamberlain's announcement described the measure as "justified reprisal" for "many violations of international law" by Germany, including, he said, the illegal laying of mines to which the British attribute most of the sinkings off the east coast of England.

Latest addition to the growing list of sunken ships was the 250-ton British merchant trawler Delphine, reported last night to have been sent to the bottom by a German submarine. The crew was believed safe.

German reconnaissance planes have made several flights over the British Isles in the past two days.

Anti-aircraft batteries on the east coast sprang into action at 7 p.m. yesterday for the second time in the day as British pursuit ships went aloft to intercept enemy planes.

No bombs were dropped, and the all clear signal was sounded after 75 minutes.

A British civil aircraft, meanwhile, inadvertently flew into London's bal-

HUEY P. LONG'S NAME FIGURES IN CAMPAIGNS

Noe Says Earl Long And Maestri Double-Crossed 'Kingfish'

MOSELEY IN MONROE

Morrison Says Weiss And Hart Putting Up Money For Noe

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The name of the late Huey P. Long, who builded the state's present political machine, is resounding lustily in the current gubernatorial campaign.

Candidate James A. Noe charged in a radio address from Lake Charles that both Governor Earl K. Long and Mayor Robert S. Maestri of New Orleans had double-crossed Huey.

Vincent Moseley, another candidate, said at Monroe that Earl Long and Sam Jones (also a candidate) "are both attempting to ride into the governor's chair on the coattails of Huey Long."

Governor Long, seeking to succeed himself, blasted the New Orleans Times-Picayune in a speech at St. Francisville, saying it was trying to get him to do the kind of things it called "dictatorial" when Huey did them.

Candidate James H. Morrison, at a rally in New Orleans, did not bring in the name of Huey but said that former leaders of the dictator's empire, Seymour Weiss and Monte Hart, now under indictment, were financing Noe's campaign.

Noe said that when Earl and his brother, Huey, were at odds in 1932 Earl sought the lieutenant-governorship on a ticket opposed to Huey's candidates and Maestri supported Earl. Maestri was then conservation commissioner.

Noe said that all the time Maestri was financing Earl's campaign Maestri was "supposed to be the right hand man of Huey Long." Earl ran last in the election, two other candidates finishing ahead of him.

Noe dared Long and Maestri to open the conservation books to show transactions that occurred in the department during the campaign. Numerous unsuccessful attempts have been made by citizens to inspect the books.

Governor Long said that the Times-Picayune was once busy charging that Huey P. Long "went around the state doing what they want me to do now, and that he was trying to take over local self-government."

He referred to the newspaper's attacks on Long for not taking action against certain district attorneys in the state.

"The Times-Picayune didn't like former Attorney General David Ellison and kept clamoring against him, claiming his appointment hadn't been legal," Long said.

"I thought so myself, and finally when Eugene Stanley (anti-administration candidate for attorney general) got something up on it I pretended to take his advice. Of course, I was just kidding about that.

"When I changed attorney generals the Times-Picayune waited a few days. Then it got its courage up and came out and said it didn't like the way I put Ellison out."

Long, charged by opponents with receiving a $10,000 fee from the Louisiana public service commission for serving as counsel in a telephone rate case, denied that he had received any fees while lieutenant-governor for appearing before public bodies.

"I never got paid as lieutenant-governor for appearing before any committees," he said. "The only committees I appeared before, there was no charge for my being there."

Moseley, in his address, said he, "for one, can never defend Huey Long."

"I do not believe," he said, "that either you or I can ever condone his

Half Of Nation Thursday To Observe Thanksgiving

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(AP)—About half the country will observe Thanksgiving day tomorrow, but the confusion which followed President Roosevelt's decision to advance the customary date has extended right into his own family.

The chief executive and the first lady will have their turkey dinner tomorrow night at the Warm Springs, Ga., foundation for infantile paralysis patients. Some of their children, however, will observe both tomorrow's holiday and the one proclaimed by governors in some states for November 30.

James Roosevelt, the president's oldest son, will celebrate in New York tomorrow and then go to Massachusetts, which has selected the traditional last Thursday in November. Mr. and Mrs. John Roosevelt also will have their turkey at Nahant, Mass., on the "second Thanksgiving."

The governor of Texas proclaimed both Thursdays as a holiday, so Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt will have two dinners at their ranch near Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., will have turkey tomorrow at their cottage in Charlottesville, Va., but next week they will have guests for Thanksgiving recess of the University of Virginia.

The president's daughter, Mrs. John Boettiger, of Seattle, will follow her father's example and observe only the "first Thanksgiving."

The last time a president—and he was Republican—broke the Lincoln tradition of having Thanksgiving on November's last Thursday, no calendar manufacturers complained, no football schedules were upset, no Christmas business boom was anticipated.

President Grant just said that, whereas the country had been prosperous and free of pestilence and peaceful, he would "recommend that

LECHE-RANKIN MOTIONS TO BE ARGUED TODAY

Delayed Until Afternoon Because Shushan Case Interferes

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Counsel for five defendants in the Shushan mail fraud case today attacked the indictments before Federal Judge Wayne G. Borah on the grounds that the grand jury was given no actual evidence of mail fraud.

This was countered in a demurrer filed by District Attorney Rene A. Viosca in which he replied that "naturally the government at this time does not wish to divulge its testimony before the grand jury."

Viosca said more than fifteen witnesses had appeared before the grand jury in the case, the second major trial set in federal court in the months' long Louisiana political scandals investigation.

Opening arguments on a plea in abatement, Attorney Rene Waguespack claimed that no evidence of a "scheme and artifice" to defraud or any evidence of actual use of the mails to defraud had been presented to the grand jury.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Arguments on technical pleas in the Leche-Rankin mail fraud case were set for 2 o'clock this afternoon in federal court here while the court first took up a motion for continuance in the Shushan case.

Under agreement of counsel Judge Wayne G. Borah set the Leche-Rankin case for the afternoon because of voluminous arguments pending in the Shushan case. A. L. Shushan, former president of the Orleans levee board and four others are charged with mail fraud in connection with a $496,000 bond refunding fee which the government alleged they fraudulently shared in.

Former Governor Richard W. Leche and former State Conservation Commissioner William G. Rankin are charged in the presentation of an $11,000 cabin cruiser to Leche which allegedly was paid for by conservation commission funds.

THANKSGIVING TO BE OBSERVED HERE THURSDAY

Holiday Planned In State; Churches To Have Services

Thanksgiving will be observed by Louisiana on Thursday, a week earlier than is customary because of presidential and gubernatorial proclamations naming November 23 as the day to be thus observed.

Schools, courts, banks, the postoffice and business houses generally, will suspend operations for the day.

The First Presbyterian and the First Baptist churches in Monroe will each conduct its own sunrise breakfast, primarily for young people, when a devotional will also be conducted.

The First Baptist church in West Monroe will hold a Thanksgiving service Thursday at 9 a.m. when the pastor, Dr. A. E. Prince, will preach.

In the First Methodist church, West Monroe, a union service of Thanksgiving will be held for churches of both Monroe and West Monroe. The sermon will be preached by Rev. R. T. Watson, Monroe Christian church pastor, and the public is invited.

Grace Episcopal church will have Holy Eucharist at 9 a.m. and special music with sermon by the rector, Rev. E. F. Hayward. The collection will be for the benefit of the Episcopal orphanage in New Orleans.

St. Matthew's Catholic church will have a high mass at 8 a.m. with a sermon by the pastor, Rev. N. F. Vandegaer.

Thanksgiving will be observed with bounteous dinners at the Louisiana Baptist Children's home and at the Louisiana Training institute Thursday noon.

Aged and needy colored people and children will be served a Thanksgiving dinner at the Colored Welfare mission, 907 DeSiard street, Thursday at 2 p.m.

THANKSGIVING TO BE OBSERVED THURSDAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Thanksgiving day, a week earlier than the traditional last Thursday in November, will be widely observed tomorrow by the country's principal financial and commodity exchanges.

The New York stock and curb exchanges, banks and commodity futures markets will close. Outside of New York, grain markets in Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis, the New Orleans cotton market, Savannah and Jacksonville naval stores and various livestock markets will suspend trading.

Only one state with important markets—Minnesota—will stick to tradition. In that state Minneapolis and Duluth grain exchanges, in company with Canada's Winnipeg market, will be opened tomorrow.

Security markets throughout the country will follow the lead of the "big board."

Canadian and foreign markets will operate as usual.

BILL LIPSCOMB, RUSSELL RAWLS FATALLY HURT

Wreckage Of Automobile Strewn Some Distance Along Track

ONLY ONE WITNESS

Operator Of Missouri Pacific Motor Train Describes Accident

Russell Rawls, 25, truck driver for the News-Star and Morning World, was instantly killed when the car he was driving collided with a southbound Missouri Pacific railroad motor train on the McGehee-Ferriday branch, near Alsatia, 18 miles north of Tallulah, Wednesday at 8:15 a.m.

With him as the only other companion on the trip was Billy Lipscomb, 25, who was so badly injured that he died when he was being conveyed to a Tallulah hospital shortly after the accident occurred. While Rawls' identity was quickly ascertained from papers found on his person, it was some time before the identity of Lipscomb was determined.

The wreckage of the automobile was strewn around the scene of the accident and copies of the Morning World, which were being delivered to cities and towns between Monroe and Lake Providence, were also found in torn piles near the railroad crossing.

Word was sent to the parish coroner at Lake Providence, the wreck having occurred in East Carroll parish, and the body was permitted to remain undisturbed until it had been viewed by the coroner.

Meantime, Lipscomb was rushed to Tallulah, location of the nearest hospital. He died before arrival there, and the body was turned over to the T. Ed Williams Funeral home in that city.

The only witness to the accident is said to have been the operator of the motor train. He said that he observed the newspaper delivery truck which was westbound and approaching the crossing of the railroad which at that point runs north and south. He said that at first it appeared as if the truck was about to slow down and await the passing of the southbound motor train. Then all of a sudden, the train operator said, the man at the wheel speeded up and evidently believed he had time to make the crossing ahead of the train. The crash then occurred.

Young Rawls had been employed for some time by the News-Star and Morning World and was regarded as a careful driver.

1,500 MEN HUNT 4-YEAR-OLD TOT

Hope Grows Dimmer For Boy Missing From Home Since Sunday

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Fifteen hundred men, more persistent than hopeful, searched the hills east of Klamath Falls today for four-year-old Irwin Jack (Sonny) Maxwell, missing since Sunday.

Almost every able-bodied man joined the hunt for the child who strayed from his yard Sunday clad only in a light brown sweater and a pair of blue overalls.

Search leaders regarded the rugged country and three successive nights of sub-freezing weather as too much handicap for a child of four, and declared that if the lad really is lost in the hills there is almost no chance of his being found alive.

Possemen declared they had scanned every square foot of ground as far out as a four-year-old could possibly walk alone without finding any positive trace of the boy.

In the posse was the lad's father, Elmer Beebe, a mill worker. The child was given the name of Maxwell when his mother, Mrs. Wayne Maxwell, remarried.

The freckled-faced, red-haired youngster was last seen by a neighbor near the edge of town at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. Footprints believed to be those of the boy were traced for a distance east of town.

A wide-scale search was started Monday morning but a Dobermann Pinscher dog belonging to Policeman Jack Linkenbach was unable to pick up a scent.

Sonny's mother remained hopeful and recalled the case of Bruce Crozier, 7, who wandered from the hunting camp of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crozier of Winslow, Ariz., October

QUEEN STEALER FOUND GUILTY

First Case Is Tried By New Judge Of Little Chicago

For stealing the queen of Little Chicago, Hayes Gentry of West Monroe was hauled into Judge Jaybird Salley's municipal court the first of the week, sentenced to five years of hard labor and fined $1.

The larceny charge arose out of the recent marriage of Gentry and Miss Sarah Jane Wall, who ruled over the Little Chicago festivities November 7 and 8.

The harsh sentence, the first pronounced by Judge Salley since he took office as the source of justice in Little Chicago, was tempered with a suspension. Gentry was placed in the custody of his wife for five years instead of being sent to the rock-pile.

Sentence was passed by Judge Salley after a jury had found Gentry guilty as charged.

Under appointment of the court, Pat Reece, defeated [illegible] candidate for the judgeship, acted as prosecutor in the absence of District Attorney Paul Re[illegible]. James Battitta, the [illegible] aspirant for the [illegible], was retained as defense counsel.

Before he discovered that he, too, was puffing away, Judge Salley fined Gus Kokinos, Adams and Ritter for smoking in court. Then, becoming aware that he had a cigar in his mouth, the jurist slapped a penalty on himself.

Between 50 and 75 persons were present at the proceedings, which took place in the courtroom of the West Monroe city hall. Legal experts explained that the trial was held there because the offense was committed in the borough of West Monroe.

LAGUARDIA PLANS HOUSING PROJECT

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A $22,000,000 to $24,000,000 low-rent housing project, the largest public housing development on record in the United States, is planned by Mayor LaGuardia for occupancy in 1941.

LaGuardia disclosed yesterday a formal application and plans for the project had been filed with the New York state housing authority.

The development, covering 15 blocks in an area near the Brooklyn navy yard, would contain 3,828 apartments with 15,964 rooms, LaGuardia said.

The mayor did not announce how the project would be financed, but said he had been promised "prompt cooperation from the state." It was explained the state had $50,000,000 available for housing loans up to June 30 of next year, and that $33,000,000 of this was available to New York City.

Sharing the Cost of Government

● The total tax bill incurred by this Company and associated Natural Gas production and transmission companies in the delivery of Natural Gas to city gate and other customers amounts to nearly two million dollars a year. This tax money goes to your schools, local governments, counties and parishes, your State and Federal governments.

● One of the larger items in this amount is that for the support of the schools. Interpreted in another way, public statistics show that the average annual salary of the elementary school teachers in this country is about $900. This being true, taxes that we pay every year, if used for school purposes alone, would compensate on the average for the services of more than 2,200 elementary school teachers for an entire school year.

● Taxes are always with us—you know that from your own experience. For many years these companies have paid their heavy tax bills promptly—helping to maintain government, protection for your family and property, and an educational opportunity for the children of your community.

HOME

... But news comes that sets ... The children are coming home. ... children are to see their home and know ...

Down come the battered little chairs from the attic, the familiar little beds from their corners. The old rocking horse is furbished into a circus charger and the cookie jar is filled. Home is about to receive its crowning touch, its completion.

It takes three generations to complete a home. One to teach, one to learn, one to understand and express its meaning and its values in their daily living. One generation gathers, one spreads, one returns again to its sources. So home is created. So home is enjoyed.

Young people starting out need a home, a place of their own where they can cultivate and serve their love. They must have this place to start from and to return to, secure and safe in its walls. Its cost and all that are less than important beside the all-essential love. Given that nothing else matters much, for love creates its own always.

My home is an old white house in a valley, and I never see it without remembering the young soldier in the A. E. F. A visitor in the trenches asked him what he was fighting for, expecting, of course, that he would say he was saving the world for democracy. Instead he said: "Stranger, I'm fighting for a little white frame house out in Oklahoma and I'm in a hurry to finish this job and get back there."

That's what I'm fighting for, too. It's what every man and woman in these United States is fighting for today. His home. God save it to us, always.

Roosevelts ...

... Mrs. Roosevelt ... White House ...

We have seen ... pounds ... would be ... Mrs. Roosevelt.

Helps With Entertaining

Recently it was arranged for Mrs. Roosevelt to assume a share of White House entertainment that ordinarily would have fallen upon the increasingly busy president. She will save the president's time and strength by having afternoon musicales and teas for capital company to replace the evening dinners which the president would have to attend.

We can imagine her writing a report of a struggle with her voluminous mail ... along the Potomac, of a session with a new book on the migrants problem (she will tell you what's in it and why you should read it).

Lunch that will absorb only the forenoon. After lunch she will visit an orphanage or a new slum clearance project, then be back in time to take 250 guests in for music. Don't be surprised if she flies to your town that night to deliver a lecture, not, however, without reserving time to get a bundle off to the new grandchild in Seattle.

No jesting, these Roosevelts are terrific. We can only recall repeatedly the comment of Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, reported in the book of Hugh Wilson, former ambassador to Germany:

"If you marry a Roosevelt you have to be strong both mentally and physically, else they will crush you."

Ah, yes, and where is Cousin Kermit now? Somewhere in France, serving in the armies of the British.

Both the 60th and 75th marriage anniversaries are known as diamond weddings.

MANY IN COLLEGE DRIVEN TO INSANITY

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 22 —(AP)— Many college students are driven "to insanity or at least nervous breakdowns" because of over-emphasis on studies, at the expense of sports, in the opinion of Dr. John M. Harmon, director of athletics at Boston university.

"So many wearers of the Phi Beta Kappa key have neurol afflictions that this Greek appellation has been interpreted by many to be a reference to a disease," Dr. Harmon told a Springfield college forum last night.

One way to prevent such nervous disorders, he said, was to establish higher physical education requirements in the colleges.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 22. Yesterday, two studio executives were discussing the casting of a newly purchased story. "I could see Madeleine Carroll in that role," said one, "if only she weren't such a cold personality." Harris called curriculum investigations now under way "perhaps the most important public school endeavor characterizing our efforts for many years," and said "the remedial results have been remarkable." He favored continued expansion of the trade school system and criticized the teacher who "is inclined to measure his learning and importance by the number of students that he flunks," adding teachers should measure their usefulness by the numbers of students who pass.

The superintendent praised the teachers' association for remaining "strictly aloof from partisan politics."

GERMAN AND BRITISH WARFARE MORE BITTER

(By Associated Press)

Mounting maritime losses and recriminations over the foiled Munich plot on Adolf Hitler's life further embittered today the warfare between Germany and Britain.

An Italian steamer struck a mine off the English coast where more than ten ships, including five neutrals, have gone down in the past five days.

The German freighter Bertha Fisser fell prey to a British warship near Iceland.

These new casualties were added to the list of 15 which mines and submarines have destroyed since last Thursday, a quick increase which spurred Britain to retaliatory measures against Germany.

Britain accused Germans of turning loose the mines which caused heavy losses near the English coast, but the charge was denied in Berlin.

In retaliation Prime Minister Chamberlain announced a blockade of all German exports designed to choke the Reich's trade. Most imports already were banned by the British contraband control imposed at the war's outset.

Berlin declared the British measure was certain to bring counter-retaliation from Germany.

Unaccustomed light was thrown on the conflict of plot and counter-plot between secret agents by a German announcement of the seizure of two British secret operatives and the arrest of a Munich man for the November 8 bomb attempt on Hitler's life.

The announcement said the man, Georg Elser, had confessed setting the explosive which killed eight persons soon after Hitler had left the Munich beer hall.

Though the captive Britons were not linked specifically with the assassination plot, they were accused of organizing attempts to overthrow the Nazi regime. The two men were captured trying to enter Germany from the Netherlands, said the German announcement.

The British foreign office denied that Britain had any knowledge of Elser and said there was no connection between the bombing and the capture of the two Britons.

The war remained quiescent on the western front, where France said there was "nothing important to report during the night."

Germany said scouting flights over the British isles had cost one plane. The British announced yesterday that a German raider had been shot down during a day which saw the penetration of enemy aircraft on scouting flights over several parts of the United Kingdom.

WAR AMONG SECRET AGENTS IN LIMELIGHT

BERLIN, Nov. 22—(AP)—The war among secret agents leaped into unaccustomed limelight today with the Gestapo's announcement that a Munich plotter had confessed the November 8 attempt on Adolf Hitler's life, and that two British operatives had been seized.

Heinrich Himmler, chief of the secret police, said George Elser, 36-year-old resident of Munich, planted a time bomb in the Nazi beer cellar shrine there at the instigation of Otto Strasser, long-time Hitler foe, and with funds furnished by Great Britain.

He did not link the two captive Britons specifically with the blast, but accused them of organizing plots in Germany.

Himmler said that in trying to reach Switzerland, Elser was caught the very night of the explosion, which killed eight persons and which Hitler escaped by 11 minutes.

Elser confessed November 14, he said, and several accomplices were arrested, but the information was kept secret until last night to expedite other seizures. Himmler appealed to all citizens for further information regarding Elser or former associates.

He did not mention the government's offer of rewards totalling 900,000 marks ($360,000) for arrest of the Munich plotters, and authorities declined to comment on it. Eight Nazis were killed in the Munich blast.

Reporting another angle of the undercover war-within-war of rival secret services, Himmler said a "Captain Stevens" and a "Mr. Best" of the British intelligence were captured November 9 while attempting to enter Germany from Venloo, the Netherlands.

He accused the British of being duped by German agents posing as disgruntled officers. He said that in attempting to organize plots against the Reich, they supplied radio equipment with which the Germans kept up deceptive communications until yesterday.

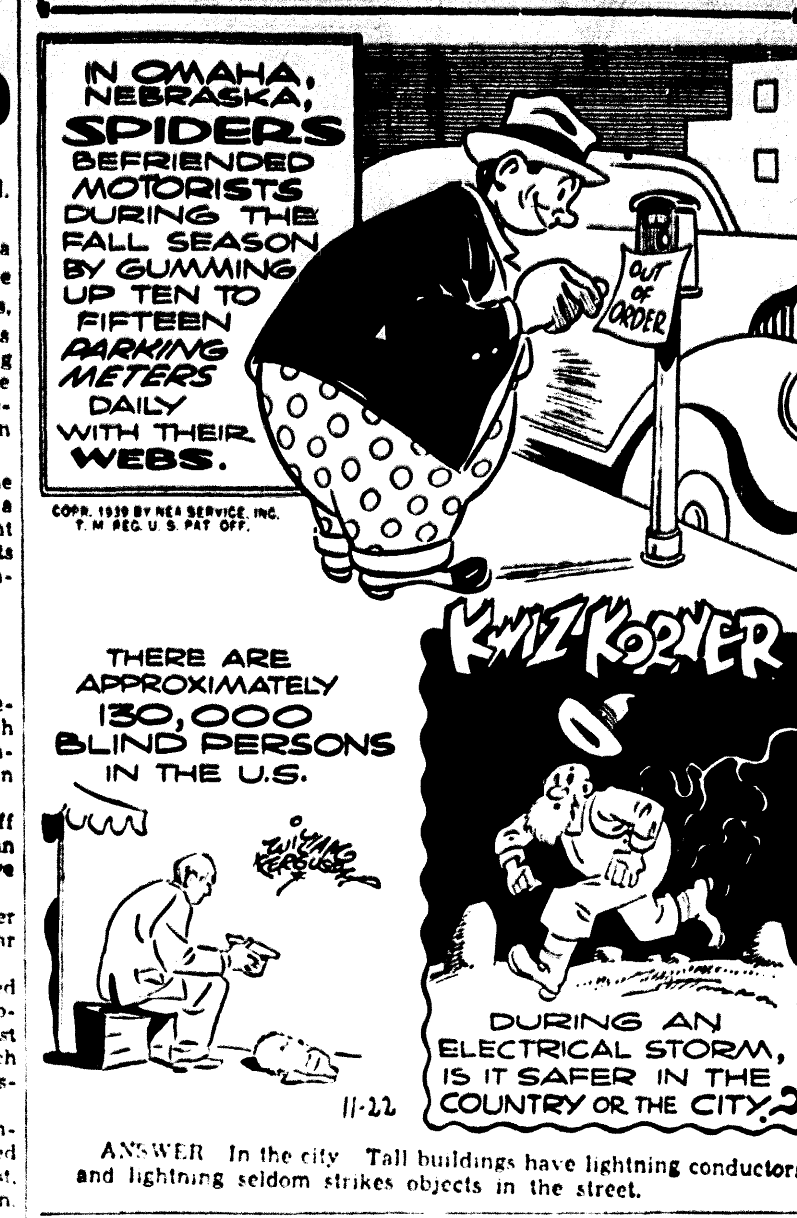

(In London, the British foreign office denied any agent of the British government had "any knowledge" of a German "described as having placed a bomb in the Munich cellar."

(The foreign office said there was "no connection" between the bombing and "the kidnaping of two British subjects on the German-Dutch frontier.")

The Gestapo report said of the Britons: "Contradictory claims whether they were captured while still in Holland or when in Germany are at present being examined."

"Let me warn you, men and women of Lou'siana, do not allow yourselves in your righteous indignation, in your eagerness to remove this present disgraceful situation, to forget its inception and be stampeded into embracing a certain candidate who would deceive you."

Morrison, in charging that Weiss and Hart were furnishing Noe's campaign fund, said:

"Dr. Joseph C. Menendes is the house physician for the Roosevelt hotel and is Seymour Weiss' personal physician," said Morrison. "Dr. Menendez is a candidate for lieutenant-governor on Noe's ticket. Weiss and Hart are putting up the money for Noe's campaign, and they made Noe take Menendez on his ticket."

Morrison, after attacking rival Candidates Earl K. Long and Sam Jones in addition to Noe, said his own campaign was "going like wildfire all over the state."

"I have the most constructive platform of any of the candidates for governor," he said. "I stand for a $3 license plate for small cars, a $1 license plate for farmers' trucks and a $1 fee for chauffeurs, instead of $3.

"I will eliminate all nuisance taxes, and will cut down on all business licenses. I will cut out all 'hot oil' and I will give every boy and girl in the state an opportunity to get a college education.

"I will construct more trade schools, and I will pave all links in our highway system, and I will black-top gravel roads."

Morrison charged that four years ago Long stood on the same platform with former Governor Richard W. Leche and promised the people there would be no sales tax.

"The people were double-crossed by 'Walking Stick Dick' and Earl Long," he said. "They put a sales tax on the people, and Earl Long has not taken it off. If Earl Long were sincere, he would take the sales tax off the backs of the people, but he hasn't done it."

For Stuffy Nostrils due to COLDS use MENTHOLATUM

Link them together in your mind!

IT'S easy to get quick relief from stuffy nostrils with Mentholatum. This soothing ointment reduces the local congestion, thus helping to clear the breathing passages. Mentholatum also checks sniffling, sneezing, soreness due to colds. It soothes irritated membranes and promotes healing. And its vapors likewise carry comfort deep into the cold-infested air passages.

Who's Wrong In This Picture?

Both are! The idler squanders time and opportunity. The drudge never rests. He forgets that overwork brings fatigue that dims his wits. How wise are those who go to neither extreme . . . those who can give work and responsibility their full share and then turn to well-deserved recreation. For it is in these hours of relaxation that your family enjoys your companionship. By living a balanced life—you build friendships and develop the art of hospitality. Temperate in all things, you come to a full realization that the world abounds with people and ways to make life inviting, colorful and more worthwhile.

Just as surely as a fine violin gives its voice to a symphony, or a soft light complements a painting, so does Budweiser add its contribution to an interesting lifetime—a contribution of companionship and contentment for Man and his mood when day's work is done.

The ... attending the Don Cossack choir concert at the Neville High school auditorium will be thrilled with the performance of the knife dancer who performs the spirited movements of the Caucasian Cossacks, carrying twelve knives in his mouth and hands on his chin, his lips and his shoulders. This is an art that few dancers can learn. It is a family accomplishment, handed down from father to son in Caucasia from one generation to another. Another attractive feature of the performance is the marvelous whirlwind dancing of the singers.

The reputation of this band of twenty-five Russians, who are sometimes and picturesquely known as the "twenty-five singing horsemen of the Steppes," has preceded them wherever they have travelled a fame which is due not only to their brilliant gramophone recordings and sound films, but to their remarkable stage successes.

These perfectly matched solo voices cover the range from high soprano to the lowest bass, singing vivid homespun ballads, opera choruses and soldier songs with a gladness and grandeur that is characteristic of their race. They offer a unique commentary upon the genius of the Russian people.

The choir is really like one great organ, and the conductor, M. Nicholas Kostrukoff, is, as you might say, the organist. With his magnetic personality he controls the voices as one would the organ stops, bringing out quick changes in emotion and strength and hushing the music to almost a whisper.

Under his tuition the choir has built up a repertoire of songs, including old Cossack melodies, legends of folklore, battle songs and beautiful lullabies. The musical sense of these twenty-five singers is so keen and the precision of choir singing so clever, that they can produce the most delicate tone colours with as much ease as they can obtain their battle song effects.

And in addition to their brilliant singing, the Platoff choir will give a display of Cossack dancing that will add to their astonishing artistic repertoire.

Chapter 12

Tuck's Necklace

"CHARLOTTE JEAN," said Tuck next morning as she dried the newly washed flower vases, "we had a marvelous melon cocktail last night. Mrs. Deane is an awfully good cook. Not that you cook the ... of course," she added hastily as a question grew in Charlotte Jean's eyes. "It seemed very simple. I ... find out ... Order some melons ... One of every kind they have."

"Yes'm, Mrs. Forrester. Did you drink ... eat it?"

"We ate it. Like an oyster cocktail, Charlotte Jean."

"Yes'm." She sighed. "I'm for ... myself."

"Why the sigh?" Tuck asked ... "Has somebody disappointed you ever ...?"

self they'll be ugly?"

"I ain't got nothink to say about it, mum."

Tuck turned away in despair, and encountered the gaze of Miss Alix Lissey, who had come into her own back garden, and was leaning on the hedge.

"What's that idiot doing?" she asked, none too quietly.

Tuck went closer before she answered. "He's making rockeries, Miss Lissey," she replied sweetly. "I think they're wonderful, don't you? So picturesque."

"Hmpf. Who told him to?"

"I'm sure I don't know. What person has charge of the gardens out here?"

"He has mostly. But the man's a fool. He has the brain of a hen." She changed the subject abruptly. "I suppose you had a wonderful time last night?"

"Yes, I did. It was awfully nice of Mrs. Deane to have us. Lovely party, wasn't it?"

There were suddenly a great many more wrinkles in Miss Lissey's face. "A lovely party," she repeated distastefully. "A lovely party—yes, the way a wormy apple is lovely."

"Ugh ... Surely ..."

Alix Lissey's eyes were sharp. "How did you like Mrs. Murchison?" she demanded. ...

Two Rockeries

CHARLOTTE JEAN ... "Now you're teasing me, Mrs. Forrester," she said reproachfully. "Do you want me to cut them flowers for you, or are you going to do it?"

Tuck glanced out of the window over the sink. "Oh, he's working in the garden? Well—much as I hate to slow up love's young dream, I am very anxious to have the silver polished very thoroughly. The District Attorney is coming to dinner."

Tuck had gathered an armful of gladioli, put them in vases in the house, and was down by the hedge before she noticed what Higgins was really doing. He was bringing his barrow full of stones and piling them in semicircles, one at each side of the garden gate.

"What are you doing?" she asked curiously.

He got up from the ground and jerked the barrow a little closer to the pile of stones. "I'm makin' a rockery, mum," he replied.

"A rockery? Two rockeries, Mr. Higgins? But why? This isn't at all the sort of garden to have rockeries in, is it? It's too formal. Won't they quarrel with the sundial?"

"It'll be easy to whitewash 'em, mum. Then they'll mate."

"But surely, are rockeries supposed to be whitewashed? I don't want to interfere, but I think a rockery — two rockeries—against the hedge—I think it will spoil the garden. Don't you?"

He piled two more rocks on the heap. "I don't know nothink about it, mum. Orders is orders," he said stubbornly.

"Yes. But don't you think your-

"Rest assured ... were burning it would be quite safe, curled up snug and warm ... He was running down the basement stairs as he talked and Tuck followed him.

"Let's see now," he muttered. He wandered about looking at the ceiling ... "This is the study ventilator, and the dressing room probably connects with it somewhere up above in the floor."

"Can you get them, Michael? It looks awfully solid."

Michael got a screw driver and performed a minor operation on the ventilator, at the angle where it entered the basement. He peered into the opening. He put the screw driver in and moved it about. "That's funny," he said. "Are you sure that's where they went, Tuck?"

"Of course I'm sure. I just dropped them right bang into it."

Michael peered into it again. He prised the opening wider, and put his hand in. The ventilator was empty.

"Couldn't they be farther along, Michael?"

"I don't see how, unless they had feet. That pipe runs flat for ten feet before it takes another bend. They'd slide some distance, of course." As he spoke he was pulling the sheet of tin loose along one side of the pipe, and watching inside it.

The necklace was emphatically not there.

Constipation Relief That Also Pepsin-izes Stomach

When constipation brings on acid indigestion, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, sour taste, and bad breath, your stomach is probably loaded up with certain undigested food and your bowels don't move. So you need both Pepsin to help break up fast that rich undigested food in your stomach, and Laxative Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels. So be sure your laxative also contains Pepsin. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative, because its Syrup Pepsin helps you gain that wonderful stomach comfort, while the Laxative Senna moves your bowels. Tests prove the power of Pepsin to dissolve those lumps of undigested protein food which may linger in your stomach, to cause belching, gastric acidity and nausea. This is how pepsinizing your stomach helps relieve it of such distress. At the same time this medicine wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your bowels to relieve your constipation. So see how much better you feel by taking the laxative that also puts Pepsin to work on that stomach discomfort, too. Even finicky children love to taste this pleasant family laxative. Buy Dr. Caldwell's Laxative—Senna with Syrup Pepsin at your druggist today!

Ten Want To See Tennessee Play Against Aggies

By Mortimer Kreeger

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 22.—(AP)—The man in the street [illegible] pass the freight, wants to see Tennessee play Tulane in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's day.

'JUST FOR FUN' GRID TEAM GOES UNDEFEATED

SWARTHMORE, Pa., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Football "just for fun" with practice when it doesn't interfere with studies, has sent the Swarthmore "Little Quakers" through the season undefeated.

Under President Frank Aydelotte's policy of "no scholarships, no professionalism and no undue emphasis," Swarthmore has won 11 games, tied two and lost one in two years. A 12-12 tie with Oberlin marred the record this season.

Dr. Aydelotte, who leaves Swarthmore next year after 18 years, considers the record "an unexpected triumph in our policy of playing just for fun" under Coach Lew Elverson, former Penn halfback.

The college has a sports-for-all policy, with 70 per cent of its enrollment of less than 1,000 participating in intra mural competition. Football gets no more attention than any other sport.

Dr. Aydelotte is strongly opposed to subsidizing athletes.

"How can any university which uses dishonest methods to win football games expect their students to be anything but dishonest after they graduate?" he asked.

OTTO LUDWIG TO WRESTLE BURNS

Will Meet In Semifinal; Shadow Returns In Main Event Thursday

A [illegible] bringing together [illegible] Wrestling Shadow [illegible] Otto Ludwig and [illegible] Monroe Wrestling arena [illegible]

[illegible]

Ludwig, who has been confining himself mostly to roughhouse tactics [illegible] week brought [illegible] skill and speed he had not [illegible] before to give the Mexican [illegible] a close battle.

With the carding of junior lightweights Promoter Kallio has injected a speed and agility into the mat cards which, judging from the approval fans gave the Ludwig-Ramos bout last week, has caught the eyes of Monroe spectators.

Both Ludwig and Burns are expected to stay in high gear Thursday night in keeping up the faster pace that goes with wrestling in the lighter division.

In the final event, the Wrestling Shadow, known to fans for his exploits in the local arena last summer, takes on a former masked matman, Parelli, who kept his mask on for only two weeks here but ran his victory streak to four straight before Sailor Watkins humbled him last week. The Shadow, although he has not appeared here for three months, probably hasn't deserted the rough and ready type of grappling he displayed in the local arena last summer, but he will be up against a real test in Parelli, who can keep up his end of the rough going and return as much with interest.

Between the events, another popularity contest will get underway, this time to determine the grappier—next to Watkins—who is most in favor with local fans. The reward for winning the voting will be a trophy donated by the R. and A. Jewelry company of Monroe. Watkins, by virtue of winning the first contest, will not be eligible for the second voting.

The contest beginning tomorrow night will be held in the same manner as the first contest, a wrestler being required to win the vote three times in order to gain permanent posession of the trophy.

Besides being of great help to the wrestler who wins in getting matches at other arenas, the contests aid Promoter Kallio in selecting mat cards which will meet with approval of local fans.

Those eligible in the second contest are as follows: Sailor Moran, Joe Banaski, Dutch Schultz, Chuck Powell, Otto Ludwig, Joe Parelli, Yaqui Joe, Carlos Ramos, Frankie Hill, Al Perry, Dick Sampson and Burns and the Shadow, with their appearance here tomorrow night.

The semifinal event between Burns and Ludwig will begin at 8:30 o'clock. Heaters have been installed at the arena for the comfort of patrons, Promoter Kallio said.

Women fans will be admitted at half-price tomorrow night.

NEVILLE WILL PLAY HORNETS HERE TONIGHT

Rivers And Haddad Will Be Missing From Local Team's Lineup

The Rayville High school Hornets, beaten only once in Class A circles this year, invade Brown field here tonight to meet the Neville High school Tigers, also once beaten in the Class A conference. The opening kickoff is slated for 8 o'clock.

Although Neville is favored to trim the light Hornet eleven, the Richland parish aggregation has played some stellar ball this year and will be capable of giving Coach Percy Brown's aggregation a hard battle.

Coaches Don Darling and Huey Williamson, former Louisiana Tech stars who are ending their first year at Rayville, will bring a squad of 24 players here. The Hornets will arive in Monroe about 6:30 p. m.

The Hornets' record for the season is five victories, two ties and one defeat. They trimmed Oak Grove, Mangham, St. Joseph, Winnsboro and L. T. I., played Dubach and Delhi to scoreless ties and lost only to the Bastrop Rams who are claiming a place in the Class A title games. However, Neville's superiority is believed reflected in the outcome of games against teams played by both Neville and Rayville. Mangham lost to Rayville, 27 to 0, and was beaten by Neville, 47 to 7, and Winnsboro lost to the Hornets, 6 to 0 and bowed to the Tigers, 38 to 0.

Two Neville regulars are expected to be missing from the lineup tonight, however, Coach Brown stated. R. C. "Red" Rivers, veteran fullback, and Jasper Haddad, halfback, are both nursing shoulder injuries that will probably keep them on the sidelines. Franklin Rivers and Jake Ussery have been groomed to fill Haddad's place as blocking back, while Robert Gates and Joe Costanza are slated to share "Red" Rivers' fullback job.

With Rivers out of the lineup, Guy Miller, the Tigers' stellar 120-pound quarterback, will probably be called upon to do most of the ball carrying and all the punting and passing.

Coach Brown said he expected to substitute freely, just as he did in the Vicksburg game last week, in order to get more experience into the boys he will be needing to build his 1940 team.

A long scrimmage and signal drill without any rough contact work yesterday ended the Neville preparatory work for the [illegible].

The probable starting lineups:

Rayville	Pos.	Neville
Nunnally	LE	DeMasterson
Statham	LT	Wood
Davis	LG	Hood
Sutton	C	C. Johnson
Thornsberry	RG	McKeithen
Tatum	RT	Petterson
[illegible]	RE	Simpson
W[illegible]	QB	Miller
D[illegible]	HB	Luffey
W[illegible]	HB	F. Rivers or Ussery
Shoemaker	FB	Gates or Costanza

The officials will be Dr. W. L. R[illegible] (L[illegible]), referee; Hal Willis (La. Tech), umpire; J. B. Swanson (La. Tech), head linesman, and Gus Whalen (Boston college), field judge.

FOES DRILL IN SECRET FOR TRADITIONAL GAME

STATE COLLEGE, Miss., Nov. 22.—(AP)—The Mississippi State Maroons spent their practice session behind locked gates Tuesday polishing up their timing and special plays they will use Saturday against the University of Mississippi.

J. W. Patrick, sophomore, was stationed at left guard in place of the injured Hunter Corhern and Toxie Tullos was holding John Turner's fullback post.

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Nov. 22.—(AP)—The University of Mississippi Rebels engaged in secret practice Tuesday for their tilt with the Mississippi State Maroons Saturday, and showed ability in scrimmage to stop the freshmen who used state running plays.

Indications were that the injured Chick Gladding and Ham Murphy, ends, and Fullback Merle Hapes would be able to play against State.

The squad will scrimmage again Wednesday.

VOLS WILL SCOUT TROJANS IN BATTLE WITH NOTRE DAME

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 22.—(AP)—There'll be a rousing gridiron "open house" here next Saturday—at which someone's going to get hurt.

On the turf of Notre Dame stadium, the Irish take on those tough Trojans from South California in the biggest intersectional football battle of the day. Fifty six thousand wild eyed fans will pack the Irish stadium, all seats having been sold a week ago. With Notre Dame out to avenge a 1938 Trojan victory and Southern California aiming at an undefeated season, it promises to be another typical Irish-Trojan thriller.

Yet there is even another "angle" this year—and it will add significance to this pigskin brawl.

In the spacious press box keen eyed University of Tennessee scouts will go into action with pencils and charts. According to the Chattanooga Times they'll be there as "preparedness" for the possibility of Tennessee going to the Rose Bowl. Of course, no decision on the Rose Bowl party will be made for some time, but virtually everyone thinks the Trojans will "pour" for the Pacific Coast conference and a lot of folks think Tennessee should be No. 1 on the invitation list.

All of which gives Notre Dame a chance to upset the apple cart with a crash that would be heard from the bronx to the golden gate and all points south. Victory for the Irish, who'll be the underdogs, would not directly keep the Trojans out of the Bowl game, but it wouldn't do that contest any good. And wouldn't the Tennessee scouts have a glum afternoon watching Notre Dame toss blankets on the team they'll be trying to uncover?

The Irish could do it. They'll be remembering how U. S. C. spoiled a perfect season for them last fall. They've won seven games—losing by one point to Iowa—as the Trojans were tied by Oregon and won their next five battles. But don't expect Elmer Layden of Notre Dame to make any prediction. As he gives his old felt hat another tug and cups his chin in his hands he'll only shake his head and say:

"Boy, this is gonna be a dandy!"

PANTHERS READY FOR TITLE GAME

Lake Providence At Full Strength For Tilt With Clarks Tomorrow

LAKE PROVIDENCE, La., Nov. 22.—(Special)—The Lake Providence Panthers, who meet the Clarks Lumberjacks on the neutral field at Tallulah for the Class B championship of northeast Louisiana Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, will go into battle at their full strength.

The Panthers, who have lost only two Class B games for the three years including the present season, have been working hard this week for the engagement and are confident they can penetrate the highly touted Clarks defense.

Paul Geisler, Centenary's former all-American, has done a good job of coaching in his three seasons here and expects this to be his banner year. Last year the Panthers lost only one conference game, a 7-to-6 decision to Wisner, and in 1937 they reached the conference playoff only to be eliminated by Columbia, 7 to 0. Columbia went on to win the state championship that year.

The Panthers' starting lineup will include only three seniors and three juniors and will be rounded out with five batting sophomores.

In the backfield Lake Providence has two seniors, Quarterback Charles Surles, 155-pounder, and S. E. Holloway, a 145-pound halfback. Salvadore Salemi, 170, is one of the heaviest performers on the team, playing at fullback. Salemi is a junior. The youngster of the backfield is O. Z. Goode, dependable sophomore halfback, who weighs only 132 pounds.

The lone senior in the line is End Leo Lively, who is also the Panthers' heaviest forward. Lively tips the beams at 170. The other wingman is Robert Lively, stellar 160-pound junior. The Panthers have capable tackles in J. W. Clements, 160, and Maple McWilliams, 155, both sophomores. The guards are Lloyd Sullivan, 160, a sophomore, and Hyland Nelson, 155-pound junior. Lightest of the linemen but one of the roughest is Stennis Parker, 145-pound sophomore, who holds down the pivot job.

Supporters Jittery After Close Call With Vanderbilt Last Week

By Don Whitehead

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Tennessee's thoroughly chastised Volunteers poked their heads out of the storm cellar Tuesday and began a determined preparation to regain the prestige lost in the Vanderbilt breeze-that-became-a-cyclone.

Almost swept from the field by the fury of a rejuvenated Vandy eleven—and barely able to salvage a 13-0 victory to maintain their unbeaten, untied and unscored-on record—the Vols primed their offensive weapons for two tough foes, Kentucky on Thanksgiving (November 30) and Auburn in the season finale December 9.

A decisive win over Kentucky was about the last chance for the Vols to clamber back in the Associated Press poll as the nation's No. 1 team, a spot from which they were ousted this week by Texas A. and M.

And Major Bob Neyland was looking at the future darkly, as Rose Bowl rumors floated around.

"I figure our two hardest games lie ahead of us," said the Tennessee mentor. "Kentucky has demonstrated it is one of the best teams in the Southeastern conference. The boys are fast, alert and well-coached. Auburn is coming fast in the last part of the season, has a fine defense and one of the best kickers in the country in this boy Dick McGowan."

There's cause for the major's misgivings. Kentucky has been beaten this season only by Georgia Tech and in the past has proved a jinx to undefeated Neyland teams, knocking them out of a Rose Bowl bid in 1929 with a 6-6 tie.

Auburn, after losing four of the first six games, has come back strong to whip Villanova, 10-9, and Louisiana State, 20-6.

"The boys realize what they are up against," Neyland said. "That close call with Vandy did them good."

George (Bad News) Cafego, Neyland's ace tailback, who was out of the Vandy game with a sprained knee, will be back in the lineup to lead the Volunteers on their final drive for a second consecutive "perfect season."

The odds are in their favor—but the nerves of the homefolks are still fluttering over the Vanderbilt scare and there's the fear it might happen again with more disastrous results.

TARHEEL ACE ACCEPTS ALL-STAR INVITATION

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 22.—(AP)—George Sturnweiss, North Carolina's triple-threat quarterback, became Tuesday the 16th southern senior to accept an invitation to participate in Montgomery's Blue and Gray all-star game December 30.

Squads of 22 men each will be picked from either side of the Mason-Dixon line and will report when here December 23. The Blue will be coached by Carl Snavely, of Cornell, and Lynn Waldorf, of Northwestern; the Grays by Jess Neely, of Clemson, and Ray Morrison, of Vanderbilt.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Eddie Brietz

NEW YORK, No. 22.—(AP)—The Illinois boxing commission is awaiting the green light from the attorney-general before proceeding in the Harry Thomas case. . . . Henry Rusoff, the Seattle tennis ace, leaves soon to campaign in the Sugar Bowl championships and on the Florida winter circuit. . . . It'll cost you $11.50 to view Armstrong vs. Ambers from a ringside pew. . . . Stanford is said to be making passes at Washington's Jimmy Phelan.

Down south they're campaigning to break up the Laurel (Miss.) High school football team. . . . Every man in the line-up is a .300 hitter. . . . The other day Laurel routed Gulfport, 54-0, with every touchdown and every extra point being scored and kicked by a different threat.

Mike Jacobs is going to Cleveland to see Al Hostak fight Eric Seelig on the News' big Christmas fund show. . . . Dick Riffle, halfback for the Philadelphia Eagles, has been made a deputy sheriff in Steuben county, N. Y. . . . There were 22 sets of brothers playing on teams in the southern Kansas semi-pro baseball league last year. . . . Art Rooney, owner of the Pittsburgh football Pirates, says Coach Walter Kiesling's job is safe next season. . . . Nomination for the infantile paralysis football fund game in Miami: Petersburg (W. Va.) High which has scored 309 points in seven games this year and yielded only 13.

Jim Schlemmer, Akron (O.) Beacon-Journal: "Chicago's student magazine wants the Maroons to drop football for rugby. . . . That's dumb . . . Rugby requires 15 men. . . . Football needs only 11. . . . And Chicago hasn't got 11."

Personals: Artie M'Govern has been signed as trainer for the Brooklyn football Eagles for the rest of the season. . . . John A. Heydler, ex-president of the National league, is leaving to winter on the coast with headquarters at San Diego . . . . Johnny Farrell, one of the best known of the golf pros, will be back at the Hollywood Beach hotel course in Florida this season. . . . Denny Galehouse, the Red Sox twirler, has bought a home at Sarasota, where the Sox prep. . . . Ed Franco, former Fordham tackle star and now an assistant to Jimmy Crowley, will be married December 9 to Miss Anne M'Ginley.

The 1940 National Semi-Pro Baseball Guide lists Chief Wrinklemeat as manager of the Carmel (Ill.) team, while the Popoff boys, Alex and Jay, pitch for the Glendale (Ariz.) club. They call 'em Dizzy and Daffy.

"Kerr on way out at Colgate," shrieks a headline in the New York Post. . . . Where have we seen that one before?

Headline: "Mack promises winner in two more years."

So clear the track
For Connie Mack,
Who'll bet you jack
He's coming back.

WOMAN ARCHER KILLS 200-POUND WILD BOAR

TELLICO PLAINS, Tenn., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Mrs. E. M. McNish, only woman in a party of archers hunting wild Russian boars in Cherokee national forest, drove a steel-tipped arrow through a 200-pound tusker Tuesday—the largest to be killed this week.

Mrs. McNish sank three arrows into the animal before he gave up a battle in which he had turned on one of the dogs and seriously wounded it.

"The boar was a perfect specimen" of the breed brought to the forest from the Ural mountains, said Earl Shaub of the state conservation department who described it as the largest to be killed this season by either archers or riflemen.

INDIANS LEAVE HERE FOR GAME WITH TECHMEN

Russellville Contest Will Be Last For Locals On Foreign Field

The Indians of Northeast Center of L. S. U., left here this morning at 8 o'clock for Russellville, Ark., where they meet the strong Arkansas Tech eleven tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

It will be the Tribe's last journey away from home this year, and they return home to end their season next week with the East Mississippi Junior college eleven here.

Coach James L. Malone put the Redskins through a long drill yesterday, and although the Tribesmen turned in some almost inspired work, he is having difficulty getting a suitable aggregation together.

The line has been materially weakened by the loss of John Porter, veteran guard, and Mike Miholic, guard, and the backfield is not in its best shape. Porter is out with an injury and will be replaced by William Abraham. Miholic, suffering severe lime burns from the Southeastern battle, has been replaced by a back, "Tuffy" Westerman.

With the exception of Don Short, ailing members of the backfield have shown considerable recovery from injuries and although the cripples will not be in top form most of them will be available for some service. Bill Singleton and Guy Bryson will both play with broken noses. Ben Starrett is bothered with lime burns, but he will play some. Harry Morton and Cercy Frey, who have been on the Tribe's list of ailing backs for some time, are again ready for action.

Coach Malone has been working two backfield combinations this week and either of them may start against the Techmen who are rated as having one of the nation's best defensive aggregations, a team that battled Ouachita college to a 7-and-7 draw. Ouachita college defeated Northeast Center, 12 to 6, when the Indians were in much better condition than they are now.

One backfield combination has been composed of Singleton, Bryson, Max Hutchins and "Preacher" Blackwell. The other has been Bob May, Starrett, Morton and Roe "Rowboat" Wroten.

The Tribesmen expect to arrive in Russellville this afternoon and run through a light workout on the Tech field.

NEW YORK STOCKS

By Victor Eubank

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Traders walked out on the stock market today and leading issues slipped fractions to around a point or so.

The desire to avoid commitments over the holiday kept buying orders from the posts and the session was quiet throughout. Transfers approximated 500,000 shares.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Buying was a matter of mixed sentiment in today's stock market and while a number of favorites held in the black many leaders slipped backward.

Apathy was the order of the day from the quiet opening on. Toward the fourth hour most price changes were in fractions.

Evening-up operations in preparation for tomorrow's holiday were about all that took place except here and there where bargain hunters sought out some special share for a little upward pull.

Neither Europe's war nor developments at home were considered much by traders who preferred to enjoy Turkey [illegible] loads of stocks on their minds.

Abroad, markets in London, Paris and Amsterdam were inactive and irregular at the close. Bonds were uneven and the principal speculative commodity futures were mixed.

The curb was as mixed an affair as the big board. Lower were Colts Firearms and Lake Shore Mines. New England Telephone moved ahead on light dealings.

An item in board room gossip was the speech of Secretary of Labor Perkins in Bloomingdale, Ind., in which she declared industrial production in the United States was back at 1929 peaks and that in some industries employment was greater than in that year. Much of the improvement came in response to the needs of peace time, she said.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Wheat prices were slightly higher early today, continued drouth in the southwest offsetting the weak tone in securities.

Announcement of the government corn loan rate of 57 cents a bushel had little effect on the corn market.

Opening unchanged to 1-4 lower, December 88 1-2 to 5-8, May 86 1-8 to 86, wheat prices later advanced fractionally. Corn started 1-8 off to 1-8 up, December 50 3-8, May 53 1-2 to 1-4.

Wheat closed unchanged to 3-8 lower, December 88 3-8 to 1-2, May 86 to 86 1-8, corn 1-8 higher to 1-8 lower, December 50 3-8 to 1-4, May 52 3-8, oats 1-8 higher to 1-8 lower.

POLICE JURY PROCEEDINGS
Monroe, Louisiana, Ouachita Parish,
November 8, 1939.

The Police Jury of the Parish of Ouachita met this day in legal session convened in the Police Jury Room in the Court House in the City of Monroe, Louisiana.

Present—Hon. J. L. Warren, President, Messrs. D. Y. Smith, W. J. Vinson, B. Oakland, C. A. Kincaid, Tom Hicks, W. A. Mills, S. O. Henry, Sandel Berry, D. S. Owens, A. E. Montgomery and J. M. Breard.

Absent—Mr. A. B. Myatt.

PETITIONS

From citizens of Ward Six asking that an election be called to determine whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be licensed or permitted.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. Oakland, seconded by Mr. Owens, that the reading of the minutes for the session of October 11th, 17th and 18th be dispensed with.

Motion adopted.

By Mr. Montgomery, seconded by Mr. Breard, that the Police Jury hereby agrees to furnish transportation for WPA workers to locate the graves of the veterans of the various wars of the United States.

Motion adopted.

By Mr. Henry, seconded by Mr. Mills.

Be it resolved by the Police Jury that the President of this Body appoint a committee to investigate the fire at Sylvester Covington's place in Ward Eight and the Banks place, Bon Air Drive, Edgewater Gardens and report their findings to the Police Jury at the next meeting, December 13th, 1939.

The following committee were appointed—Messrs. Berry, Hicks, Montgomery and Henry.

Motion adopted.

By Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Breard, that Mr. Jewel Wright of the Ward Nine crew be permitted to furnish a substitute worker while he is sick and if the substitute is under age, that the Police Jury obtain a release from his father for any accident that might occur.

Motion adopted.

By Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Vinson.

Be it resolved by the Police Jury that this Body go on record as supporting the program outlined by the Louisiana Flood Control and Water Conservation Commission at a special meeting held at Monroe, Louisiana, February 17, 1939, also going on record, that it is the opinion of this Police Jury that the project as outlined in this program would be worth more to the present and future generation than any program that the government or any other public body has fostered in recent years.

Roll call resulted Ayes 12, nays 0, Absent 1. Resolution adopted.

By Mr. Henry, seconded by Mr. Breard, that Messrs. J. G. Ford, Parish Engineer, W. A. Mills, Chairman, Road Committee and Mr. B. Oakland are hereby authorized to make a trip to Alexandria to confer with Mr. J. T. Phillips, Acting District Engineer of the Works Project Administration concerning new requirements for the construction of road projects, expenses of the party to be paid by the Police Jury.

Motion adopted.

By Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Henry, that the President appoint a committee to confer with Mr. A. Parker immediately after adjournment of this Body with reference to the feeding of prisoners at the Road Camp.

The following were appointed—Messrs. Smith, Berry, Henry and Oakland.

Motion adopted.

By Mr. Oakland, seconded by Mr. Hicks, that the Police Jury in reply to communication from the Morehouse-Ouachita Baptist Association of October 20th beg to state that this Body goes on record as being in favor of strict enforcement of all laws with reference to operation of saloons, night clubs and dance halls.

Motion adopted.

By Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Oakland.

An ordinance granting to the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company of Shreveport, Louisiana, the right and franchise to use the public streets, roads and highways in Ouachita Parish, outside of any municipality, for laying, maintaining and operating its pipe lines for the transmission and distribution of gas along, upon and across such streets, roads and highways.

Be it enacted by the Police Jury of Ouachita Parish, Louisiana.

SECTION I. Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company, a Delaware corporation with its principal Louisiana office at Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana, is hereby granted the right and franchise of maintaining and operating, where the same are now located pipe lines for the transmission or distribution of gas along, upon and across the public streets, roads and highways in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana, outside of municipalities, and the right, in the future, to install its gas pipe lines across, but not along such streets, roads and highways.

SECTION II. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, that the right granted by this ordinance shall at all times be exercised by said Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company under the instructions and subject to the approval of the Ouachita Parish Engineer, in the case of pipe lines along, upon and across Parish roads, streets and highways, and subject to the approval and under the supervision of the Louisiana Highway Commission, in the case of pipe lines along, upon and across State Highways. The said gas company shall in case install any additional pipe lines across the public roads, streets and highways of the Parish, or do any work upon such pipe lines where they are installed along, upon or across such streets, highways and roads, except after obtaining the approval of the work proposed to be done, or the installment proposed to be made, in the case of Parish roads, from the Ouachita Parish Engineer, and in the case of State Highways, from the Louisiana Highway Commission; such approval to be evidenced by permits issued by the Parish Engineer or the Louisiana Highway Commission, as the case may be.

SECTION III. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, that all ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Roll call resulted Ayes 12, nays 0, Absent 1. Resolution adopted.

J. L. WARREN,
President, Police Jury.

MRS. E. H. HILL,
Secretary, Police Jury.

SOUTH LOUISIANA GETS NEW OIL FIELD

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22—(AP)—South Louisiana today had a new oil field in St. Martin parish and prospects of another in St. John the Baptist parish.

Oil flowed through a 1-4 inch choke at the rate of 900 barrels daily in an initial test of the well on the Happytown prospect on the Atchafalaya river in St. Martin parish. It is the Shell Oil company's No. 1 Iberville Land company well. Depth was 9,750 feet.

In St. John the Baptist parish the LaPlace prospect, Pan-American Production company's and Shell Oil company's No. 1 Mill showed recovery of 20 per cent white distillate in gas-... over a five-minute drill stem test at 8,115 to 8,122 feet. Surface pressure was 280 pounds and bottom hole pressure 2,750 pounds.

MACHINES SQUEEZE YOUTH TO DEATH

LEWISTOWN, Mont., Nov. 22—(AP)—Twenty-year-old Verle Kenneth McWilliams was squeezed to death between two pieces of farm machinery on his father's ranch.

Coroner Curtis W. Wilder said the machinery pinned McWilliams in such a way that he was unable to breath and suffocated.

The youth was pulling a grain drill with a tractor. The drill broke loose. Its tongue pinned him against a heavy bar across the tractor seat.

2 ROAD PROJECTS GIVEN APPROVAL

Road construction under a WPA project in West Carroll parish has just been approved, an allotment of $75,482 having been assigned for this purpose, according to information received at the offices of Newt V. Mills, representative in the lower house. The police jury of West Carroll parish is named as sponsor.

A similar allotment of $81,439 has been approved for construction of roads in Franklin parish, with the Franklin parish police jury as sponsor.

STAB WOUND FATAL

BASSFIELD, Miss., Nov. 22.—(AP)—E. W. Bell, contractor and builder, who was stabbed in an altercation here Saturday night, died yesterday.

Alma Magee, Bassfield painter, was held in jail at Prentiss—a structure which was being remodeled under the supervision of Bell at the time of his death.
